

Q.) How long does it take to get enrolled?

A.) The application process can take between 8 and 14 weeks. These times do vary, and depend on the applicant and circumstances. Different people have different situations, so the processing times may be sooner than two weeks or later than eight weeks. Continuous contact with your admissions counselor will allow you to determine an appropriate wait time for your individual case.